§ 43.0041. Examination Results

Effective: September 1, 2005

(a) Not later than the 30th day after the date on which a licensing examination is administered under this chapter, the department shall notify each examinee of the results of the examination. However, if an examination is graded or reviewed by a national testing service, the department shall notify examinees of the results of the examination not later than the 14th day after the date on which the department receives the results from the testing service. If the notice of examination results graded or reviewed by a national testing service will be delayed for longer than 90 days after the examination date, the department shall notify the examinee of the reason for the delay before that 90th day.

(b) If requested in writing by a person who fails a licensing examination administered under this chapter, the department shall furnish the person with an analysis of the person's performance on the examination.

(c) A person who fails an examination three times may not submit a new application for a license until after the first anniversary of the date the person last failed the examination.

V.T.C.A., Human Resources Code § 43.0042

§ 43.0042. Recognition of License Issued by Another State

(a) The department may waive any prerequisite to obtaining a license for an applicant:

(1) after reviewing the applicant's credentials and determining that the applicant holds a valid license from another state that has license requirements substantially equivalent to those of this state; or

(2) after determining the applicant has a valid license from another state with which this state has a reciprocity agreement.

(b) The department may enter into an agreement with another state to permit licensing by reciprocity.

V.T.C.A., Human Resources Code § 43.0055

§ 43.0055. Competitive Bidding or Advertising Rules

(a) The department may not adopt rules restricting competitive bidding or advertising by a license holder except to prohibit false, misleading, or deceptive practices.

(b) In its rules to prohibit false, misleading, or deceptive practices, the department may not include a rule that:

(1) restricts the use of any medium for advertising;

(2) restricts the use of a license holder's personal appearance or voice in an advertisement;

(3) relates to the size or duration of an advertisement by the license holder; or

(4) restricts the license holder's advertisement under a trade name.

(a) The department shall issue a license to a person who has satisfied all the licensing requirements.

(b) The license is valid for a period of two years from the date issued.

V.T.C.A., Human Resources Code § 43.0081

§ 43.0081. Provisional License

Effective: September 1, 2005

(a) The department may issue a provisional child-care administrator's license to an applicant licensed in another state who applies for a license in this state. An applicant for a provisional license under this section must:

(1) be licensed in good standing as a child-care administrator for at least two years in another state, the District of Columbia, a foreign country, or a territory of the United States that has licensing requirements that are substantially equivalent to the requirements of this chapter;

(2) have passed a national or other examination recognized by the department that demonstrates competence in the field of child-care administration; and

(3) be sponsored by a person licensed by the department under this chapter with whom the provisional license holder may practice under this section.

(b) The department may waive the requirement of Subsection (a)(3) for an applicant if the department determines that compliance with that subsection constitutes a hardship to the applicant.

(c) A provisional license is valid until the date the department approves or denies the provisional license holder's application for a license. The department shall issue a license under this chapter to the provisional license holder if:

(1) the provisional license holder passes the examination required by Section 43.004;

(2) the department verifies that the provisional license holder has the academic and experience requirements for a license under this chapter; and

(3) the provisional license holder satisfies any other license requirements under this chapter.

(d) The department must complete the processing of a provisional license holder's application for a license not later than the 180th day after the date the provisional license is issued. The department may extend the 180-day limit if the results of the license holder's examination have not been received by the department.

V.T.C.A., Human Resources Code § 43.009

§ 43.009. License Renewal

Effective: September 1, 2013

(a) To be eligible for license renewal, a license holder shall:

(1) present evidence to the department of participation in a program of continuing education for 15 hours of formal study each year during the two-year period before the renewal; and

(2) provide information for the department's use in conducting a criminal history and background check under Section 43.004(c) and applicable department rules, including a complete set of the person's fingerprints.

(b) The board shall recognize, prepare, or administer continuing education programs for license holders. The continuing education requirement may be fulfilled by studies in the areas of legal aspects of child care, concepts related to the field of social work, or other subjects approved by the department.

(c) A person who is otherwise eligible to renew a license may renew an unexpired license by paying to the department before the expiration date of the license the required renewal fee. A person whose license has expired may not engage in the activities that require a license until the license has been renewed under the provisions of this section.

(d) If a person's license has been expired for 90 days or less, the person may renew the license by paying to the department one and one-half times the required renewal fee.

(e) If a person's license has been expired for longer than 90 days but less than one year, the person may renew the license by paying to the department two times the required renewal fee.

(f) If a person's license has been expired for one year or longer, the person may not renew the license. The person may obtain a new license by submitting to reexamination and complying with the requirements and procedures for obtaining an original license. If the person was licensed in this state, moved to another state, and is currently licensed and has been in practice in the other state for the two years preceding application, the person may renew an expired license without reexamination. The person must pay to the department a fee that is equal to two times the required renewal fee for the license.

Department of Family and Protective Services; Child Welfare and Protective Services _Chapter 43. Regulation of Child-Care and Child-Placing Agency Administrators

(g) At least 30 days before the expiration of a person's license, the department shall send written notice of the impending license expiration to the person at the licensee's last known address according to the records of the department.

V.T.C.A., Human Resources Code § 43.010

§ 43.010. License Denial, Revocation, Suspension, or Refusal to Renew; Reprimand or Probation

Effective: September 1, 2013

(a) The department may deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license, or place on probation or reprimand a license holder for:

(1) violating this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter;

(2) circumventing or attempting to circumvent the requirements of this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter;

(3) engaging in fraud or deceit related to the requirements of this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter;

(4) providing false or misleading information to the department during the license application or renewal process for any person's license;

(5) making a statement about a material fact during the license application or renewal process that the person knows or should know is false;

(6) having:

(A) a criminal history or central registry record that would prohibit a person from working in a child-care facility, as defined by Section 42.002, under rules applicable to that type of facility; or

(B) a criminal history relevant to the duties of a licensed child-care or child-placing administrator, as those duties are specified in rules adopted by the executive commissioner;

(7) using drugs or alcohol in a manner that jeopardizes the person's ability to function as an administrator;

Texas Statutes and Codes Annotated _Human Resources Code (Refs & Annos) _Title 2. Department of Human Services and Department of Protective and Regulatory Services (Refs & Annos) _Subtitle D. Department of Family and Protective Services; Child Welfare and Protective Services _Chapter 43. Regulation of Child-Care and Child-Placing Agency Administrators

(8) performing duties as a child-care administrator in a negligent manner; or

(9) engaging in conduct that makes the license holder ineligible for:

(A) a permit under Section 42.072; or

(B) employment as a controlling person or service in that capacity in a facility or family home under Section 42.062.

(b) A person whose license is revoked under Subsection (a) is not eligible to apply for another license under this chapter for a period of five years after the date the license was revoked.

(c) Repealed by Acts 2005, 79th Leg., ch. 268, § 1.129(5).

(d) If a license holder is placed on probation, the department may require the license holder:

(1) to report regularly to the department on the conditions of the probation;

(2) to limit practice to the areas prescribed by the department; or

(3) to continue or renew professional education until the practitioner attains a degree of skill satisfactory to the department in those areas in which improvement is a condition of the probation.

V.T.C.A., Human Resources Code § 43.0105

§ 43.0105. Revocation of Probation

Effective: September 1, 2005

The department may revoke the probation of a license holder if the license holder violates a term of the conditions of probation.

§ 43.0106. Administrative Hearing

Effective: September 1, 2005

(a) If the department denies a license or proposes to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a person's license, the person is entitled to a hearing conducted by the State Office of Administrative Hearings. Proceedings for a disciplinary action are governed by the administrative procedure law, Chapter 2001, Government Code. Rules of practice adopted by the executive commissioner under Section 2001.004, Government Code, applicable to the proceedings for a disciplinary action may not conflict with rules adopted by the State Office of Administrative Hearings.

(b) A person may not continue to operate as a licensed child-care administrator or child-placing agency administrator during the appeal process if the department determines that the person is an immediate threat to the health or safety of a child.

(c) The department must notify the person, and if applicable, the governing body of the facility that employs the person, of the department's determination under Subsection (b).

V.T.C.A., Human Resources Code § 43.011

§ 43.011. Appeals

(a) A person whose license application is denied or whose license is revoked is entitled to written notice of the reasons and may request that the department provide a hearing.

(b) The hearing shall be held within 30 days after the date the department receives the request.

(c) If the hearing results in the department upholding the license denial or revocation, the person may challenge the department's decision by filing suit in a district court in the county where the person resides within 30 days after the date the person receives notice of the department's final decision.

(d) The trial shall be de novo.
